Now, by publish for the information of the public. The what right does Holden call on Grant in this dition of John C. Calhoun? Is it as the man who taught secession for twenty years in North Carolina? Is it as the man who approved and endorsed Clingman's conditional declaration of war in 1856? Is it as the man who proposed domiciliary visits to the houses of Union men by vigilance committees? Is it as the man who voted for secession and signed it, with the declaration It appearing to the Board upon the application that it was the noblest act of his life? Is of Edgar H. McQuigg and John J. Conoley that there is a contest as to who of the six Justices | it as the man who pronounced Mr. Everett of the Peace elected by the voters of Wilmington one of the most "elegant devils out of Township, were elected as Justices of the Peace hell?" Is it as the man who suggested the to act on the Board of Township Trustees for the assassination of President Lincoln? Who can tell us? Who make answer to these questions, suggested by his notorious profligacy as a politician ? And going a step in the city as candidates at large, it further in this Longinus-like method, may has been all things by turn and nothing long, if we may except his teachings as a leader of secession ?-Norfolk Virginian.
